This encore presentation examines the new 2010 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Title III Regulations that took effect on March 15, 2011. Some compliance deadlines are less than nine months away – how prepared are you?

Whether you missed the first Webinar, or just need a refresher, take advantage of this complimentary session to learn how the 2010 Regulations will impact your operations and facilities.

Subject matter experts Minh Vu and Karen Stephenson of Seyfarth Shaw LLP will discuss:

- New requirements for existing swimming pools, spas, saunas, and steam rooms
- New standards for what is considered an accessible facility
- Clarified or expanded requirements regarding hotel reservations, service animals, effective communication with guests with disabilities, and ticketing
- Coverage of power mobility devices
- Coverage of timeshares and condo-hotels
- Proposed regulations for accessible Websites, point-of-sale devices, guestroom beds and other furniture, and other self-service equipment

Minimize your exposure to litigation and government enforcement actions by registering for this timely Webinar.

Complimentary for AH&LA members; $99 for nonmembers.
